

FUNDING ALERT

A Service of the Executive Office of the Mayor
Office of Partnerships and Grants Development
Government of the District of Columbia
<http://dc.gov/index.asp>
Email: fundingalert@dc.gov

Volume 7, Issue 3

January 19, 2004

Federal Opportunities

Ryan White Title III: Early Intervention Services Capacity Activity Program. The Department of Health and Human Services announces funds to support eligible entities in planning efforts to strengthen their organizational infrastructure and enhance their capacity to develop, enhance, or expand high quality HIV primary health care services in underserved areas and communities of color. Eligible applicants include public or private nonprofit organizations, faith-based and community-based organizations. The deadline for applications is March 5, 2004. Approximately $1.7 million is available to fund 12 awards. For further information contact Wayne Sauseda, at (301) 443-0493, or wsauseda@hrsa.gov ; or go to <http://www.hrsa.gov/grants/preview/hivaid.htm>

SPRANS: Community-Based Abstinence Education Project Grants. The Department of Health and Human Services announces funds to develop abstinence education approaches that are culturally sensitive and age appropriate to meet the needs of a diverse audience of adolescents, ages 12 through 18. Eligible applicants include State agencies, nonprofit organizations, community-based and faith-based organizations. The deadline to submit applications is February 9, 2004. Approximately $33 million is available to fund 70 awards ranging from $250,000 to $800,000. For further information contact Donna Hutten, at (301) 443-5839, or dhutten@hrsa.gov , or go to: <http://www.hrsa.gov/grants/preview/guidancemchb/hrsa04077.htm>

Screening and Intervention for Youth in Primary Care Settings. The Department of Health and Human Services announces funds to conduct research to expand the role of primary care in the prevention and treatment of problem drug use, abuse, and related health problems among youth in the pre-dependency phase. Eligible applicants include State and local government entities, nonprofit organizations, private institutions of higher education, for-profit organizations and community action agencies. The deadline to submit applications is February 19, 2004. Approximately $3 million is available to fund 6 to 8 awards ranging from $250,000 to $500,000. For further information contact Dorynne Czechowicz, at (301) 443-0107, or dczechow@nida.nih.gov or go to: <http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/rfa-files/RFA-DA-04-006.html>

Grants for Arts Projects. The National Endowment for the Arts announces funds for the promotion of various art projects, regardless of the size or type of applicant organization. Proposed programs should be of national, regional or field-wide significance; tour in several states; or provide an unusual or especially valuable contribution because of geographic location, including local projects that have significant effects within communities or that are likely to serve as models for a field. Eligible applicants include State and local government entities, nonprofit organizations, community action agencies, and private institutions of higher education. The deadline to submit applications is March 15, 2004. Awards range from $5,000 to $150,000. For further information go to <http://www.arts.gov/grants/apply/GAP05/Contacts.html> to determine your appropriate staff contact. Also see: www.fedgrants.gov

District Opportunities

FY2004 Latino Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment Services. The Mayor's Office on Latino Affairs (OLA) announces funding for the FY2004 Latino Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment Services Grant. Funds will support: substance abuse prevention/education program for seniors; fetal alcoholism prevention program; and inpatient treatment program for adult Latinos. Eligible applicants include qualified community-based organizations serving the Latino community. The deadline for applications is February 20, 2004, at 5pm. Approximately $425,000 is available. For further information, contact Deidre M. Hunt, CDH Management and Consulting, at (202) 641-5766 for Request for Application (RFA) pick-up location and times. The RFA will be available on the websites of OLA, www.ola.dc.gov, and OPGD, www.opgd.dc.gov/info/grant/funding_grants/index.sh tm, no later than January 26, 2004.

Electronic Grants Clearinghouse. The DC Office of Partnerships and Grants Development is the clearinghouse for the Government of the District of Columbia's grant programs. Notices and application packets are still available at http://opgd.dc.gov/info/grant/funding_grants/index.sh tm for the following notices:

The DC Department of Health (DOH)/HIV/AIDS Administration (HAA), FY 2004 Ryan White Title II Grant, February 9, 2004, at 5pm. An amendment to the RFA will be posted to the OPGD website no later than January 23rd, 2004.

The Office of the Secretary (OS), Escheated Estates, March 26, June 25, September 24, and December 30, 2004.

Foundation Opportunities

Community Needs. The First Data Western Union Foundation has a Global Grant Making program that provides grants for educational, health, and human services programs, especially in support of initiatives that address literacy, healthcare for the uninsured, poverty alleviation, language barriers and cultural adjustment. Eligible applicants include nonprofit organizations. The deadlines for applications are March 1, June 1 and December 1, 2004. For further information and to access the application, go to: <http://www.firstdatawesternunion.org/index.html>.

Financial Education. The National Endowment for Financial Education (NEFE) announces funds for programs to educate the public - especially young people and members of underserved, low-income groups - on how to better manage personal finances. Proposed projects should encourage personal savings and investment as a means to financial security. Eligible applicants include nonprofit organizations. The deadline for applications is February 3, 2004. The average grant is $50,000. For further information, contact Marilyn Canfield, NEFE, 5299 DTC Boulevard, Suite 1300, Greenwood Village, CO 80111; (303) 224-3534; (303) 220-0838- fax; or mhc@nefe.org; or go to: <http://www.nefe.org>.

Skateboard Parks. The Tony Hawk Foundation seeks to foster lasting improvements in society, with an emphasis on helping children. Its principal focus is to encourage and facilitate the design, development, construction and operation of new quality skateboard parks and facilities, located in low-income communities in the U.S. Eligible applicants include nonprofit organizations, a state or local agency, including public school systems or public projects. The deadlines for applications are March 1, June 1, September 1, and December 1, 2004. Grants range from $1,000-$25,000. Printed application forms may be requested in writing from the foundation office (PO Box 1780, El Granada, CA 94018), via e-mail at questions@tonyhawkfoundation.org, or downloaded via the "printable application" links at: http://www.tonyhawkfoundation.org/grant_application.asp. For further information, go to: <http://www.tonyhawkfoundation.org>.

Resources & Announcements

Call for Nominations. The Washington Area Women's Foundation (WAWF) supports programs in DC, Maryland, and Virginia that exhibit vision and impact in serving the critical needs of women and girls. Leadership Awards provide financial support, networking opportunities, and customized technical assistance to outstanding community-based programs that give women and girls the opportunity and means to take steps toward independence and well being. The deadline for nominations is February 6, 2004.

FUNDING ALERT

To access a nomination form, go to: www.wawf.org and select 2004 Leadership Award Nomination Form. Send the form via email to Marva Makle, Director of Programs and Operations, at mmakle@wawf.org. For further information about WAWF, go to: www.wawf.org.

Workshops on Outcomes-Based Funding, Targets and Milestones. The Freddie Mac Foundation is offering two types of workshops for executive directors, program managers and development directors in preparation for the Foundation's March 1, 2004, deadline:

Outcomes Funding – This session is for new Freddie Mac Foundation applicants or those who want a refresher on the full application and its investor context.

- February 4, 8:30am-noon.

Targets and Milestones – These sessions will focus on developing clear, participant milestones that are critical to achieve intended results. This is for groups who have already attended the Outcomes Funding Workshop and who can bring a clear description of their project to the sessions.

- Strengthening Families
February 4, 2004 – 1:30-5:00pm
- Youth Development
February 5, 2004 – 8:30am-noon
- Foster Care and Adoption and Advocacy
February 5, 2004 – 1:30-5:00pm

Workshops will take place at the Freddie Mac Foundation, Conference Room – Chicago A, 8200 Jones Branch Drive, McLean, Virginia. A continental breakfast will be provided and refreshments will be available in the afternoon. To register for these free sessions, please send an email to www.fmrinstitute.org with the following information: Outcomes Funding Workshop or Focus area session you would like to attend; organization name; name/title of attendee; and phone number.

Pro Bono Consulting Services. Net Impact, formerly Students for Responsible Business, is an international network of business professionals committed to using the power of business for social change. Its Service Corps program provides pro bono business consulting services to DC area nonprofits. Projects are structured as consulting engagements with 2-4 professionals per team. Projects are designed to run 4-9 months starting in March 2004, with each volunteer devoting 10-15 hours/month. Eligible applicants include DC area 501(c)(3) organizations (excluding political or religious affiliation), especially those in community development, education, or environment sectors. The deadline for applications is Friday, January 16, 2004. Full program guidelines, descriptions of past projects, and a simple online application are available at www.net-impact.org/index.php?sc. For further information, contact one of the local Service Corps City Liaisons: Christopher Earley at cericearley@hotmail.com or (202) 431-0776; or Diane Hill at dhill3@cox.net or (703) 534-1961.

State of the District. Mayor Anthony A. Williams invites you to the 2004 State of the District Address. This event will be held on Tuesday, February 3, at the Lincoln Theatre, 1215 U Street, NW, Washington, DC 20009 (Metro Green Line – 13th & U Street Exit). Doors open at 6pm; the address starts at 7pm. For further information, contact the Office of Community Outreach at (202) 442-8150.

Funding Alert is a free service of the Office of Partnerships and Grants Development in the Executive Office of Mayor. To be added to the list, send your name and organization with an email to fundingalert@dc.gov. For archives visit http://opgd.dc.gov/services/grant/funding_alerts/index.htm